UAMS Sets Summer Computer Classes for Adults

LITTLE ROCK – Two computer classes – Intermediate Computers and Computer Basics – will be taught this summer for adults at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging.

The courses will be presented by the Little Rock Digital Learning Center, a nonprofit volunteer group in collaboration with LifeQuest of Arkansas, with classes being held at both the UAMS Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging on the UAMS campus and at Second Presbyterian Church in west Little Rock.

The schedule for July classes at UAMS is:

- Computer Basics, Mondays and Wednesdays, July 8-24, 10 a.m.-noon
- Intermediate Computers, Mondays and Wednesdays, July 8-24, 1-3 p.m.

The schedule for the July-August class at Second Presbyterian Church is:

- Powerpoint Tips and Tricks, Thursdays, July 11-August 1, 1:30-3 p.m.

Course fee for the three-week classes at UAMS is $60, including a manual, and $50 for the workshop at Second Presbyterian Church. Classes are in Room 2156 at the UAMS Institute on Aging, 629 Jack Stephens Drive and in Room 64 of Second Presbyterian Church, 600 Pleasant Valley Drive.

For more information and to register for classes, call (501) 603-1262, email info@littlerockdlc.org or visit www.littlerockdlc.org.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute and Institute for Digital Health & Innovation. It is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 2,727 students, 870 medical residents and five dental residents. It is the state's largest public employer with more than 10,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children's Hospital, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
