Hannah Williams, M.D., Joins Women’s Mental Health Clinic

LITTLE ROCK — Psychiatrist Hannah Williams, M.D., has joined the Women’s Mental Health Clinic in the Psychiatric Research Institute at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS).

The Women’s Mental Health Clinic treats women who are struggling with mental health issues and are pregnant, postpartum or having difficulty getting pregnant. This can include drug use disorders like opioid use disorder. To make an appointment, call 501-526-8201.

The Women’s Mental Health Clinic assists with mental health treatment during pregnancy by either working directly with the patient in clinic or by collaborating with the woman’s local physician via select telemedicine links across the state.

Treatment often includes group and individual therapy, along with medication-assisted treatment for drug use disorders.

Williams is an assistant professor in the Department of Psychiatry in the UAMS College of Medicine. She earned a bachelor’s in biochemistry and anthropology from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. She completed her medical degree and residency at UAMS.

UAMS is the state’s only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute and Institute for Digital Health & Innovation. It is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 2,727 students, 870 medical residents and five dental residents. It is the state’s largest public employer with more than 10,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children’s Hospital, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health. Visit www.uams.edu or www.uamshealth.com. Find us on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube or Instagram.
