The Institute on Aging Advisory Board members serve as ambassadors to support and publicize the institute's mission, which includes six Centers on Aging located throughout the state where the needs of an aging generation are met with the highest standards of service, research and care.

Other members of the advisory board are: Sharon Bailey, lifetime member; Diane Allen Bressinck, treasurer; Evelyn Clinton, lifetime member; Catherine Crass; James Darr Jr., lifetime member; Mark Davis, vice chair; Jo Ellen Ford, lifetime member; Mike Gibson; Reed Greenwood, Ed.D.; Judy Grundfest, lifetime member; Sybil Hampton, Ed.D.; William Haught; Martha Hill; Barbara Hoover; Jeffrey Lynch; Mandy Macke; John McKnight; Jane McMullin; Beverly Morrow; Rick Murphy; Martha Murphy, lifetime member; Greg Nabholz; Julia Peck-Mobley; Terry Quinn, secretary; Jane Rogers; Philip Schmidt; Belinda Shults; Christy Snowden; Judith Snowden, lifetime member; Lou Ellen Treadway; and Gilda Underwood.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute and Institute for Digital Health & Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS' clinical enterprise including its hospital, regional clinics and clinics it operates or staffs in cooperation with other providers. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. U.S. News & World Report named UAMS Medical Center the state's Best Hospital; ranked its ear, nose and throat program among the top 50 nationwide; and named six areas as high performing — cancer, colon cancer surgery, heart failure, hip replacement, knee replacement and lung cancer surgery. UAMS has 2,727 students, 870 medical residents and five dental residents. It is the state's largest public employer with more than 10,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children's Hospital, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
