Endocrinologist Arwa Albashaireh, M.D., Joins UAMS, Offers Streamlined Thyroid Biopsies

LITTLE ROCK — Arwa Albashaireh, M.D., has joined the Department of Internal Medicine at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) as an assistant professor in the Division of Endocrinology and Metabolism.

She treats general endocrinology matters including diabetes and thyroid, adrenal and pituitary issues. Her medical interests are in diabetes and thyroid disorders, and she performs thyroid biopsies in the UAMS Endocrinology Clinic.

“Dr. Albashaireh has been part of the UAMS family since 2017 and, with enthusiasm and hard work, acquired extensive knowledge in the endocrine field,” said Elena Ambrogini, M.D., Ph.D., director of the Division of Endocrinology and Metabolism.

Albashaireh received her medical degree from Jordan University of Science and Technology in Jordan in 2014. She completed her residency in internal medicine at UAMS in 2020 and continued her training with a fellowship in endocrinology and metabolism at UAMS prior to joining the faculty.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; a hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute and Institute for Digital Health & Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS’ clinical enterprise. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 3,240 students, 913 medical residents and fellows, and five dental residents. It is the state's largest public employer with more than 11,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children’s, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
