Plastic Surgeon David Sterling, M.D., Joins UAMS,
Will Offer Elective, Cosmetic Procedures at New Clinic

LITTLE ROCK — David Sterling, M.D., has joined the Department of Surgery at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) as an assistant professor of plastic surgery.

A board-eligible plastic surgeon, Sterling earned a bachelor's degree in biochemistry at McGill University in Montreal and his medical degree at Geisinger Commonwealth School of Medicine in Scranton, Pennsylvania, where he graduated at the top of his class. He completed his six-year integrated plastic surgery residency training at The University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City, Kansas.

In addition to working at the UAMS Health Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery Clinic on the main UAMS campus, Sterling will treat patients at the new UAMS Health Aesthetic Plastic Surgery Clinic, located in west Little Rock at 9501 Baptist Health Drive, Suite 760, in Medical Towers II.

At the aesthetic clinic, Sterling will offer such cosmetic procedures as:

- Abdominoplasty (tummy tuck)
- Arm/body/thigh lift
- Breast augmentation/lift/reduction
- Body contouring
- Face lift
- Eyelid surgery
- Liposuction
- Rhinoplasty
- Chemical peel and injectables (neurotoxin, fillers)
- Other minimally and noninvasive treatments

“We are thrilled that Dr. Sterling has joined the UAMS Division of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery,” said James C. Yuen, M.D., professor and division chief.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; a hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute and Institute for Digital Health & Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS' clinical enterprise. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 3,275 students, 890 medical residents and fellows, and five dental residents. It is the state's largest public employer with more than 12,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children's, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
