LITTLE ROCK — Oncologists Manojna Konda, M.D., and Vivek Yadala, M.D., have joined the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) to support the expansion of UAMS cancer services to Baptist Health locations.

Konda is a medical oncologist treating patients at the UAMS Baptist Health Cancer Center at Baptist Health Medical Center in Little Rock. She is a graduate of the UAMS College of Medicine where she completed a residency in internal medicine and a fellowship in hematology-oncology. Konda received her medical degree at Gandhi Medical College in Telangana, India. She is board-certified in internal medicine, hematology and medical oncology.

UAMS provides enhanced medical oncology and infusion services for cancer patients at the UAMS Baptist Health Cancer Center in Little Rock, including access to novel clinical trials and proton therapy.

Konda is accepting new patients. For appointments, call \(501\) 202-4715.

Yadala is also triple board-certified in internal medicine, hematology and medical oncology and sees patients at the UAMS Baptist Health Cancer Center at the Baptist Health Springhill Medical Plaza in North Little Rock.

UAMS provides medical oncology, radiation oncology and infusion services for cancer patients at the UAMS Baptist Health Cancer Center in North Little Rock.

Yadala joined UAMS after completing a fellowship in hematology-oncology at UAMS and Marshall University School of Medicine in Huntington, West Virginia, where he also completed a residency in internal medicine. Yadala completed medical school at the University Shri B. M. Patil Medical College in Bijapur, India.

Yadala is accepting new patients. Please call (501) 214-2170 to schedule an appointment.

“We are excited to have Dr. Konda and Dr. Yadala provide outstanding compassionate clinical care for patients with cancer or hematological conditions in Little Rock and North Little Rock and the surrounding areas,” said Ahmed Abuabdou, M.D., MBA, chief medical officer for UAMS Medical Center and director of cancer services.

UAMS is the state’s only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; a hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and eight institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute, Institute for Digital Health & Innovation and the Institute for Community Health Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS’ clinical enterprise. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 3,275 students, 890 medical residents and fellows, and five dental residents. It is the state’s largest public employer with more than 12,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children’s, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
