Constance Chapman, M.D., MPH, Joins UAMS Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

LITTLE ROCK — Constance Chapman, M.D., MPH, has joined the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology as a new practitioner and an assistant professor.

Chapman received her medical degree from The Ohio State University College of Medicine in Columbus and completed her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Lehigh Valley Health Network's Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology in Allentown, Pennsylvania.

Previously, she received a Master of Science degree in medical physiology from Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland and a Master of Public Health degree from Tulane University's School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine in New Orleans.

Chapman joins UAMS from Baptist Health Medical Center-Drew County in Monticello, Arkansas, where she served as medical director.

“We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Constance Chapman to UAMS,” said Nirvana Manning, M.D., chair of the UAMS Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology. “Her experience caring for patients in Monticello brings valuable perspective to our team, and her commitment to high-quality, patient-centered care will be a tremendous asset to the women we serve.”

Chapman also is a former member of the Arkansas Perinatal Quality Collaborative steering committee.

Chapman is accepting new patients. To make an appointment with her, call 501-526-1050.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; a hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and eight institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute, Institute for Digital Health & Innovation and the Institute for Community Health Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS' clinical enterprise. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 3,553 students and 1,015 medical residents and fellows. It is the state's largest public employer with about 12,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children's, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
