Anima Gnawali, D.O., Joins UAMS Health Neighborhood Clinic in Maumelle

LITTLE ROCK — Anima Gnawali, D.O., has joined the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences (UAMS) Neighborhood Clinic in Maumelle, where she will care for patients of all ages.

Gnawali earned her bachelor's degree in neuroscience at the University of Texas at Dallas, followed by a master's degree in medical sciences from the University of North Texas Health Science Center Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences. She then earned her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the University of North Texas Health Science Center's College of Osteopathic Medicine in 2023 and completed her family medicine residency at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in June.

Gnawali is certified in integrative medicine and sports medicine distinction. She is skilled in musculoskeletal evaluations and joint injections, skin biopsies and cryotherapy for skin lesions, and Point-of-Care Ultrasound as well as women's healthcare, including pap smears and IUD placements and removals.

Gnawali is accepting new patients at the UAMS Health Neighborhood Clinic in Maumelle, located at 102 Town Centre Drive, Suite 2. To schedule an appointment, call 501-614-2470.

The UAMS primary care service line includes three neighborhood clinics, a dental clinic and longevity clinic in central Arkansas as well as 10 family medical centers across the state. The clinics treat adults and children, offering preventive care, routine checkups, chronic condition management, immunizations, behavioral health support, and oral healthcare. They also offer same-day and urgent care visits.

UAMS is the state's only health sciences university, with colleges of Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Health Professions and Public Health; a graduate school; hospitals in Little Rock and Bryant; an orthopaedic hospital; a main campus in Little Rock; a Northwest Arkansas regional campus in Fayetteville; a statewide network of regional campuses; and seven institutes: the Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute, Jackson T. Stephens Spine & Neurosciences Institute, Harvey & Bernice Jones Eye Institute, Psychiatric Research Institute, Donald W. Reynolds Institute on Aging, Translational Research Institute, and the Institute for Community Health Innovation. UAMS includes UAMS Health, a statewide health system that encompasses all of UAMS' clinical enterprise, including affiliated hospitals in Pine Bluff, Helena-West Helena, Mena, and Warren. UAMS is the only adult Level 1 trauma center in the state. UAMS has 3,813 students and 1,030 medical residents and fellows, and two dental residents. It is the state's largest public employer with about 12,000 employees, including 1,200 physicians who provide care to patients at UAMS, its regional campuses, Arkansas Children's, the VA Medical Center and Baptist Health.
